

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS WITH DANIELLE DAVIS AND TO MAKE!

PRESENTATION OPTION #1. CREATIVITREE: INSPIRATION FOR HOW YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR CLASSROOM OR LIBRARY.

Picture book presentation and reading that models using To Make to spark creativity, writing, making, and each person's unique contribution (relates to culturally-affirming SEL and ELA Common Core Standards) + interactive activity to explore—via the steps “gather, make, wait”—how YOU make a difference in the lives of children as an educator. Approx. 1 hour.

PRESENTATION OPTION #2. “GATHER, MAKE, WAIT”: YOUR WRITING PROCESS IN ACTION.

Picture book presentation and reading that models using To Make with students to spark creativity, writing, patience, making, and each person's unique contribution (relates to culturally-affirming SEL and ELA Common Core Standards) + interactive exploration of your own writing process to nurture your identity and writing and start a project with support. Approx. 1 hour.

CUSTOM PRESENTATIONS AVAILABLE.

ABOUT ME

DanielleDavisReadsandWrites.com / danielledaviswrites@me.com

I grew up in Singapore and Hong Kong and now live in Los Angeles. To Make is my first picture book. Zinnia and the Bees was my first middle grade novel. A former educator with an MA in Literature and Creative Writing, one of my favorite things is helping kids tap into and express their unique voices and imaginations. You'll find me on my creative writing YouTube channel for kids, This Writer's Life, and my blog, This Picture Book Life.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

